16. PUBLIC QUESTION PERIOD

1) Nicole Cook - Agenda Item 6.8:

Q1) With the addition of these 5 names, I believe there will only be room for one more name. Is there a plan to buy and erect another wall and if so, will that occur in time for the next Day of Mourning (in 2022)? -

A: The city has been in communication with the artist on this matter.

Agenda Item 6.9:

The report states the Committee composition requirements are based on guidelines established in 2015:

Q1) Can the Committee and/or Council provide a copy of the resolution which changed the original composition (2007) requirement - representatives appointed by 1) United Steelworkers Workers of America, 2) Algoma Manitoulin & District Labour Council, 3) City of Elliot Lake, 4) a person representing an inductee of the worker enshrined on the memorial and 5) a non-voting City staff person appointed by the City?

A: You may request a copy of any resolution through the Clerk's office

Q2) Can the Committee and/or Council explain why it has taken this long to comply with both the 2007 and 2015 requirement and speak to how any decisions/recommendations during periods of non-compliance are deemed fair and transparent?

A: The committee has been following the criteria. We have not advertised for new members since the new criteria has been implemented.

2) Louise McLean - Who are the selected members filling these positions?

The Miner's Memorial committee is comprised of the following membership:

> a) A person appointed by the United Steelworkers Union - Doug Souliere

> b) Two persons appointed by the City of Elliot Lake - Blair Boilard and Ken Pierce

> c) A person representing an inductee of the worker enshrined on the memorial - to be advertised

> d) A non-voting City Staff person appointed by the City of Elliot Lake - Darla Hennessey

These members were appointed at a council meeting, their names are available in the minutes and on our city website under committee members.
