Re: Summer 2021 Trail Progress and Current Initiatives

Mississagi Park (S. Daigle) – 4 students pruning and marking trails, completed Sidney White and Back Country, next is Cobra and trails in town. Mississagi to open June 11, 2021.

ATV Club (R. Seguin) – New executive is Tony Morano and director is Rolly Seguin. Plans to repair trail towards Dunlop with A-gravel, change front tires on dump truck, improve trail at Split Rock.

Mountain Biking Group (D. Meeking) – Group feels excluded from rideable trails. Plans to work with staff to take down 'no biking' signage at Pony Trails and find other bike friendly areas.

Penokean Hills Field Naturalists (M. Reckahn) – On Porridge Trail 20 new T-Posts, 110 orange arrows have been installed, all trail has been signed, and light clearing has been done. At Sherriff's Creek, Denison Environmental will look after maintenance, and City has provided more benches for Jim to install—2 to be installed still.

Public Works (D. Halloch) – Engineering reports completed on bridges (every second year), going to lift 2 and fix structure underneath, as well as replacing a lot of wood.
